

Coconino County Superintendent to Seek Partners to Recognize Teacher of the Year in 2014

In an effort to recruit, recognize and retain teaching excellence, The County Superintendent, Robert Kelty, will host the Second Annual Coconino County Teacher of the Year award.

Mr. Kelty plans on partnering with those committed to academic excellence throughout the entire County in an effort to support the cash award and highlight event, an award banquet at the High County Conference Center on May 1, 2014. The award celebration will not be just about announcing the newest Teacher of the Year but is an effort to recognize all teachers for the great work they do each and every day.

Recognition Partner information and Teacher of the Year nomination forms for Coconino County teachers from Pre-K to 12th grade (both Charter and Public Schools) can be received by contacting the County Superintendent's Office at (928) 679-8070.
